

Government spending on aged care

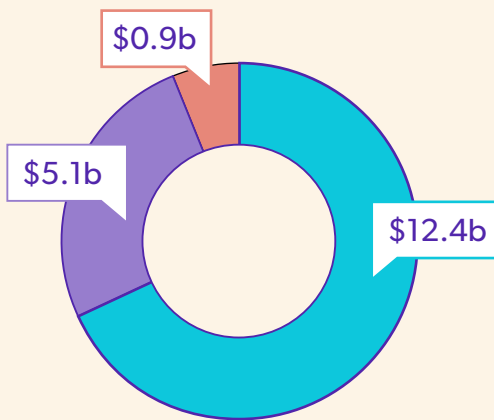

2017-18

$18.4 billion was spent

by governments on aged care services in 2017-18

Almost 70% of government spending on aged care was on residential aged care

Residential aged care
Home care and support
Other services

2.4 times as much is spent on residential aged care than home care and support (per older Australian)

$3,077

$1,263

The Northern Territory had the highest rate of government spending for home care and support (per older Australian)

Government spending increased by 23% over the last 5 years