

People leaving aged care

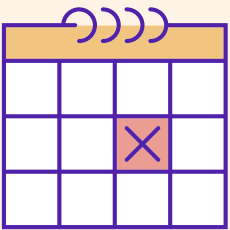

201-1

,000 people

exited residential aged care, home care or transition care in 2018-19

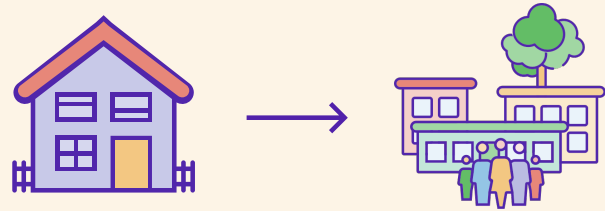

On average, people stay

2.5 years
in permanent residential care

Over half of people who left home care moved into residential care

Women stay in permanent residential care

10 months longer than men

People use home care for an average of 25 months, months less than permanent residential care

83%

of people leave permanent residential care due to death